++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A cloudy day with patchy rain at times.

Today:
After a dry start, low cloud, along with some light rain and drizzle will spread eastwards across the country. This rain then turning more showery through the afternoon. Northeasternmost areas will see the best of any drier and brighter weather. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Rain clears southwards through the early evening, with a largely dry night following. Northernmost areas will see the odd outbreak of rain at times, however. Less cloudy, with clear spells. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Monday:
A day of patchy cloud and sunny spells across the country. Staying dry for most, although northern areas likely to see the odd outbreak of rain through the morning. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Staying quite cloudy throughout the period, with only occasional bright or sunny spells. Largely dry, although with some patchy light rain at times.
